Mom Set Free Jeannie Cunnion 2017-08-29 Moms are under so much pressure. Pressure that weighs us down and threatens to wipe us out. Are you ready for relief? Mom Set Free will empower you to parent in the confidence of God's grace and to experience the freedom you were created for. We moms are told that we have to get it all right so our kids turn out right. We're told that their entire futures are riding on our ability to perfectly orchestrate their lives. And we're told that the strength of their faith hinges on ours. And we begin to believe that if we just try hard enough, we can actually "be enough." These impossible standards leave us stuck in worry, anger, guilt, comparison, and shame. Jeannie Cunnion gets it. And in Mom Set Free she reveals how the Good News of the Gospel empowers us to live—and parent—in the freedom for which Christ has set us free. Jeannie invites us to journey alongside her as we learn to: * Lay down what God has not asked us to carry so we can thrive in what He has. * Embrace our significance in our children's lives in light of God's sovereignty. * Trust God with the children He has entrusted to us. * Receive God's grace so we can reflect God's heart to our kids. It's time to breathe deeper, walk lighter, and reclaim the wonder and adventure of parenting.

Parenting First Aid Marty Machowski 2020-04-20 As a companion small group resource to Parenting First Aid by Marty Machowski, this study guide reminds parents they aren't alone in their struggles, providing an opportunity to talk about their challenges and pray for and encourage other parents. Each of the ten chapters of Parenting First Aid Study Guide contain book excerpts, Scriptures for encouragement, and questions to help stimulate discussion and application exercises. Machowski reminds men and women to rest in God's sovereign ability to reach and rescue their children. Unlike many other Christian parenting books, this resource helps moms and dads find comfort and hope in Christ rather than relying on techniques or to-do lists that fail to deliver what they seem to promise. So many moms and dads hide their child-rearing struggles, but by sharing together and praying for one another in a small group setting, parents can find encouragement, support, and community as they learn to trust God together in the midst of hardship. Raising kids isn't getting any easier, especially with the introduction of insta-porn on electronic devices, the ease of access to drugs, and the ever-increasing blurring of sexuality. This study guide is for weary mothers, fathers, and guardians who are overwhelmed with their children's choices and the culture that wars against their souls. For moms and dads with small struggles or weighty parenting trials—such as children involved with drugs, sexual sin, and teenage rebellion—this small group guide offers a place to begin conversations with other parents; seek community, Scripture, and prayer; and remember they aren't alone.

Triggers Amber Lia 2016-02-03 Do you believe your struggle with anger stems from the wrong behavior you see displayed in your children? The knee-jerk reactions and blow-ups you're facing are often a result of a bigger set of "triggers." Some of these are external, like a child's disobedience, backtalk, or selective hearing, while others are internal, like an overflowing schedule, sleep-deprivation, or perhaps your own painful experiences from childhood. Triggers: Exchanging Parent's Angry Reactions for Gentle Biblical Responses examines common parenting issues that cause us to explode inappropriately at our children. Moving beyond simple parenting tips on how to change your child's behavior, authors Amber Lia and Wendy Speake offer biblical insight and practical tools to equip and encourage you on the journey away from anger-filled reactions toward gentle, biblical responses.

The Gospel-Centered Parent Deborah Harrell 2015-06-30 Our children are precious to us, so naturally we want to protect them and guarantee their safety and happiness. We want to get it right, so our children will be all right. But we live in a broken world where things don't always (or ever?) go as planned. Children make mistakes, and, if they are honest, parents know they make mistakes too. So it's easy for parents to live in fear, regret, confusion, and sometimes hopelessness about parenting and the children they love. Is there a better way? Can you learn to live by faith, to trust the God who made you and your children with their past, present, and future? How can parents live by faith as they parent their children? These are questions that are best answered in community. This ten-session small group resource will help parents apply the gospel of Jesus Christ to their families. Each lesson looks at parenting through the lens of God's grace for sinners (parents and children) and gives parents a gospel center to their parenting. Parents will learn how to live out the biblical principles of faith, repentance, and faithfulness to their calling as parents with their children. Each lesson is self-contained, featuring clear teaching from Scripture, and requires no extra work outside of the group setting. The self-explanatory Leader's Guide at the back of the book helps small group leaders with discussion questions and background material that clearly explain and apply the gospel truths from each lesson.

Heritage Parenting R. Thomas Schwind 2015-02-14 Parenting looked at through the lens of Scripture and Christian faith. Christian parents want to raise children that love God and learn to appreciate and navigate life through the timeless truths of faith. The book contains end of chapter reflection/ discussion questions, a small group guide, topical scripture lists and other resources in the appendix. This book looks at four particular areas of parenting by Christians. First is the undeniable truth that young people leaving the family environment predominately wrestle with faith. It looks at why young people are not confident in the faith of their family and cites significant research to talk about that and how parents can counteract these causes of questioning faith. The second area looks at how Jesus trained the disciples to be world changers and ways in which parents can use the same common sense approach that Jesus did. Third, the book examines child development of intelligence, personality and morality. It presents how children grow and why their understanding of life is so different than adults. With this information, parents can communicate with their child and reach a whole new level of empathy and understanding. Fourth, the book presents a paradigm for examining your own family amid 7 facets (Pillars) of Christian family. The book does not tell you how you should practice your faith or your family but instead examines scriptural principles to help you understand your family and to intentionally raise Godly children. There is much opportunity for reflection and the spiritual depth of the content make this more than a book; it is a spiritual pilgrimage.

Running with the Horses Larry Taylor, Ph.D. 2013-10-15 We all have great intentions when it comes to raising our children. We want them to succeed, and above all to surrender their lives to the lordship of Christ. As a father of four boys and a twenty-five-year veteran of school administration, I understand these goals. I also understand the busyness of daily life--how days merge into weeks as hurried lifestyles spin out of control, leaving us wondering how our toddlers became teenagers. This book introduces you to a simple, biblically based plan for raising servant-leaders for Christ. Whether your child is eighteen months or eighteen years old, this book will guide you through the process of preparation for the race that awaits him in this world. We will walk through specific and practical things you can do to build a family plan. Being deliberate and focusing on creating depth in your child's faith is the first step to preparing him or her to run with the horses--"If you have run with footmen and they have tired you out, then how can you compete with horses? If you fall down in a land of peace, how will you do in the thicket of the Jordan?" (Jeremiah 12:5).

The biblical principles which are given in this book can encourage, exhort, and equip any parent in training up godly children who will make an eternal impact in the lives of their own children in the future. I highly recommend this book to any parent or parent-to-be as a powerful tool in helping them raise Godly children." Reverend Brad Threatt, Senior Pastor Spring Hill Baptist Church, Lancaster, SC

A Tribute to My Father John Piper 2013-06-15 My father was the happiest man I ever knew. One of the reasons for this was his singing faith. To feel the significance of this, you need to understand that he was a fundamentalist. That's not a bad word in my vocabulary. And he's the reason. Fundamentals are worth dying for and fighting for. But that fight has killed the song in the hearts of many people. But not in Bill Piper.

Parenting from the Scriptures and Scriptures for the Parents Mark Lovis 2017-01-26 Teach children how they should live, and they will remember it all their life.

(Proverbs 22:6, MLT) Most children will grow up and leave home with very little knowledge of where to find the answers to their questions. As a result, the family is likely to experience many years of struggle and frustration. This book will equip parents, pastors, counselors, teachers, Christian groups, church groups, and, most of all, children with the information they need to learn Bible principles. The Topical Guide will enable them to use the Bible as a tool to find Scriptures that will help them with guidance for specific problems and questions children may have. Part 1 is a Topical Guide divided into 101 categories listed from A-Z. Below are a few topics covered in this section: Afraid Angry Attitude Being Yourself Bullying Cheating Complaining Disrespect Do Unto Others Friends Gossip Greedy Hate Jealousy Lazy Learning Lying Meanness Pay Back Prayer Rewards Self-Control Sorry Stealing Stubborn Talks Too Much Temptation Wisdom and Understanding Worry There are also eight bonus sections in Part 2. God's wisdom is in the Bible, and this book shows you specifically where to find it for each of the 109 categories. This book gives parents the information they need to learn God's wisdom, so they can teach their family how to be the individuals God wants them to be. If a family is to experience a good life with minimal struggles, they must first acquire the right attitude; second, they must learn how to learn; and third, they must learn God's wisdom and understanding to guide them in making the right choices. All Scripture is given by God. And all Scripture is useful for teaching and showing people what is wrong in their lives. It is useful for correcting faults and teaching the right way to live. I am convinced they have a great one in this blog." -Dr. Steve Ellis, pastor, First Baptist, Leland, NC "A must-read for every parent that loves their child. Train Up a Child in the Way He Should Go... Gloria Huntington 2019-12-14 This 90 day nightly bible study and prayer book is written expressly to inspire new, or new-in-the-faith Christian parents. Psalm 119 is in the middle of the bible, it is the longest chapter in the bible. It is full of wisdom teaching us to love God's law, to write it on our hearts and to write it on the palms of our hands. Repetition is key to learning God's laws so when your children are grown, they will not forget it because they have repeated it so many times. This is crucial for your children so when they are away from you and are afraid, worried, or concerned, they have the comfort of the Word of God to rely on. Each day of teaching begins with a scripture directly from King James Bible Online .org text, then it has a summary from me. Next, there are prayers for you to share with your children so both of you are praying. There is a line for suggestion of using your child/children's names in the prayer. At the end of the prayer we pray daily for our leaders and first responders to protect them, as God asks us to do. After the prayer there is a question and discussion topic for you to encourage better understanding of the scripture and the prayer. Inside the middle watermark there is a little extra suggestions or poems for enhancing bedtime prayers with fun ways to interact together. It is with the utmost hope and love, I write these prayers for you and your children. Repetition is necessary to forge the bridge of safety of God's Word. Be consistent and they will look forward to prayer time each night. God bless You!
