From This Day Forward Study Guide Craig Groeschel 2014-10-27 Together with his wife, bestselling author and pastor Craig Groeschel shows engaged and married couples how to conquer the odds in a marriage-toxic culture in this much-needed new study. You know the stats, and they are horrifying. 50% of marriages don't make it. With those kinds of odds, is it even possible to have a great marriage? Craig Groeschel believes so, but not if you treat it like everyone else does. In this video-based small group study, New York Times bestselling author and pastor Craig Groeschel and his wife Amy show engaged and married couples how to conquer the odds in a culture where "I do" doesn't necessarily mean forever, so they can find the joy, passion, and strength of a marriage built by God. In five sessions, Craig presents the 5 commitments all spouses need to make in order to absolutely fail-proof their marriage. Starting right now--from this day forward. Sessions include: Seek God Fight fair Have fun Stay pure Never give up If participants earnestly choose to do all five of these things, they'll discover a richer, deeper, more authentic relationship and a more rewarding and passionate love life than they could have ever imagined. This study guide is designed for use with the From This Day Forward DVD.

A Rhetoric of Doing James L. Kinneavy 1992 Concerned with both the nature and the practice of discourse, the eighteen essays collected here treat rhetoric as a dynamic enterprise of inquiry, exploration, and application, and in doing so reflect James L. Kinneavy's firm belief in the vital relationship between theory and practice, his commitment to a spirit of accommodation and assimilation that promotes the development of ever more powerful theories and ever more useful practices. A thorough introduction provides the reader with clear summaries of the essays by leading-edge theorists, researchers, and teachers of writing and rhetoric. A "field context" for the ideas presented in this book is provided through the division of the various chapters into four major sections that focus on classical rhetoric and rhetorical theory in historical contexts; on dimensions of discourse theory, aspects of discourse communities, and the sorts of knowledge people access and use in producing written texts; on writing in school-related contexts; and on several dimensions of nonacademic writing. A fifth section contains a bibliographic survey and an appreciation of James Kinneavy's work. The exceptional range of these essays makes A Rhetoric of Doing an ecumenical examination of the current state of mind in rhetoric and written communication, a survey and description of what discourse and those in the field of discourse are, in fact, doing.

The Reflexive Teaching Artist Kathryn Dawson 2014-10-01 The Reflexive Teaching Artist invites Teaching Artists at all levels of experience to consider the power of reflective practice. Kathryn Dawson and Daniel A. Kelin, II offer a reflective framework - a series of foundational concepts, including intentionality, quality, artistic perspective, assessment, and praxis - illuminated through reflexive case-study examples from Teaching Artists in a wide range of settings. The authors write from the dual perspectives of artist and educator to raise fundamental questions about the complex intentions, relationships and function of the teaching artist in school, community, and professional theatre settings. Through questions, guided reflection activities, collected wisdom from the field, and an introductory action-research model, Dawson, Kelin and their contributors closely examine the practice of teaching in, through, and about drama and theatre.
